Mary Lindemann to serve as President of the American Historical Association

      Congratulations to Professor Mary Lindemann, who has been elected President-elect of the American Historical Association. Founded in 1884, the AHA is the largest and most influential professional organization of historians in the United States. Lindemann, who has been chair of the Department of History since 2009 and who recently served as President of the German Studies Association, will serve as President-elect of the AHA in 2019 and then as President in 2020. We congratulate her on this extraordinary honor!
